

The Brenda Love and Elankumaran Subbiah Memorial Awards provide $1000 each to support travel for graduate students in a PhD program to present original research in veterinary bacteriology (Love) or veterinary virology (Subbiah) at the annual CRWAD meeting.

To be considered, applicants must email the following documentation by September 15 to info@acvm.us :

1. a statement (no more than 500 words, double-spaced) explaining how their PhD research will benefit animal health/One Health
2. a letter from the applicant's major professor confirming that they are enrolled in a PhD program
3. a copy of the abstract that has been submitted for presentation CRWAD
4. a copy of the letter (email) confirming that the abstract has been accepted for presentation must be provided prior to funds being awarded

Applicants will be notified about award recipients by November 1.